

Styal Golf Club
Child Protection Policy
Underpinning Procedures

The following procedures underpin our child protection policy document, as taken from sections of the Children In Golf Guidelines for Safeguarding Children in Golf book

Communication of the policy

This policy will be available for all members of the golf club to view as it will be displayed on the notice board (s)

All parents shall receive a copy when their child joins as a member of the golf club. A signature will be required on the Junior Profile Form to confirm receipt.

All volunteers and PGA Professionals will be issued with a copy and will also be required to sign to confirm receipt.

Types of abuse

Abuse can occur and does occur inside and outside of sport. Indicators of a child being abused can be difficult to recognise. As a club there is a duty of care to respond to inappropriate behaviour, poor practise as well as reporting suspicions, allegations or disclosures. Some children also abuse other children and there is growing evidence to suggest that peer abuse is an increasing concern.

There are 4 main forms of abuse:-

Neglect, Physical Abuse, Sexual abuse & Emotional abuse

Details of these definitions can be found in the CIG guidelines book on page 46

Bullying

Bullying is deliberate hurtful behaviour repeated over a period of time. The clubs Anti bullying Procedure can be found in the appendices. Any form of bullying should be reported to the Child Welfare Officer, who will then record the details on the incident report form. A copy can be found in the appendices.

Harassment

It is for individuals to determine what behaviour is acceptable to them and what they regard as offensive. It is the unwanted nature of the conduct that distinguishes harassment from acceptable behaviour (this is an extract from the CIG book page 45)

Child Protection Responsibilities:-

The club responsibilities are outlined in the policy at the front of this document.
